ABBREVIATIONS.

Av, avenue; al, alley; bt, between; cor, corner; dw, dwelling; e, east; n, east side; n, north; ns, north side; nw, north-west; s, south; se, south-east; ss, south side; sw, south-west; w, west; 100, west side; tips, upstairs; wh, wholesale; [c], for colored persons.

Several professions will occasionally be found abbreviated, for the purpose of avoiding the doubling of a line; such as lbrr, for laborer; cab-mkr, for cabinet maker; blksmith, for blacksmith; carp, for carpenter; brkmkr, for brickmaker; &c, &C.; but the profession intended to be represented by the abbreviation will be so obvious as hardly to require elucidation.

Note - In the following, the directions are, for the most part, brief, plain, intelligible, and to the point. I have striven to obtain the proper spelling of names; and in searching for a name, the inquirer ought to know its proper spelling. A person, for instance, looking for Commons, ought not to look among the Cummins's; for Neilson, among the Nelson's; for Macdonough, or Mackoy, among the McDonoughs and McCoys; for Walsh among the Welch's and Welsh's, and vice versa, and scores, or hundreds, of other like cases of synonyms as to mere sound.

The cause of censure, in a large majority of cases, is attributable solely to the want of a knowledge of the correct spelling of the name sought for; therefore, you must know how to spell the name, else censure not if you do not find it; mind this, in part, as you go along.

Observe, that the letters I and J, U and V, are not interchangeably arranged, but I and U take precedence of J and V.
